

2018 GLOBE Climate Leadership Award

Large Business Innovator Award

Large Business Innovator Eligibility

All applicants for the Large Business Innovator Award must be registered as a Canadian corporation and have more than 500 employees as defined by Stats Canada.

Large Business Innovator Evaluation Criteria

Applicants for the Large Business Innovator Award will be evaluated on their:

1. Innovation in the fight against climate change
 - a. Describe your company's innovative technology, product, process, or action in the fight against climate change OR
 - b. Explain how your company has adopted novel technologies, business practices or processes in the fight against climate change (e.g. Greenhouse gas or energy reductions, lower material usage, ecosystems restored, and more).
2. Impact of their work to reduce and/or mitigate climate change.
 - a. Demonstrate the impact that your company has had in the fight against climate change on-the-ground, in our communities and in the world.
 - b. Describe the metrics your company uses to measure impact and your company's quantifiable impact. Some examples include: $ in energy savings, amount of CO₂ and other GHG emissions reduced (metric tons), % increase in energy efficiency, % of energy from renewable energy, # habitats restored, % of packaging material from reclaimed produce, amount of waste (tons), % of virgin material used, and more.
3. Leadership.
 - a. Detail the highest level of oversight on climate change (CEO, Board of Directors, etc.)
 - b. Describe if and how your company engages and/or informs shareholders and other stakeholders of its climate change action and/or risks.
 - c. Discuss if and how your company engages its value chain on climate change mitigation and action.
 - d. Outline if your company partners with other companies, organizations and/or governments on climate change action.
4. Commitment to the fight against climate change.
 - a. Demonstrate the long-term commitment to action and improvements in environmental and sustainability issues, including climate change mitigation.
 - b. Detail how your company communicates to internal and external stakeholders on your efforts to fight climate change and why it is important.
5. Applicability and Adoption.

GLOBE
CLIMATE LEADERSHIP
AWARDS

2018 GLOBE Climate Leadership Award

Large Business Innovator Award

- a. Explanation of how others have or can apply or adopt your company's process, technology to help further the fight against climate change the cause.