

Financial Analyst

EcoInvestors Capital is a global investment firm providing flexible capital to growth stage businesses that are environmentally positive and generate strong financial returns. These businesses support innovative, profitable solutions that contribute to all 17 United Nations Sustainable Development Goals (SDGs), and directly help achieve the environment-related goals. We look for both a solid IRR and Environmental Rate of Return (ERR) - which is our metric to measure net positive environmental impact - without compromising either.

EcoInvestors is currently seeking a Financial Analyst who will support financial modelling and competitor analysis for several compelling investment opportunities. Join a team who invests in the business value of sustainability, ensuring that economic, social and environmental sustainability co-exist, such that people and nature thrive.
